

BUILDING A SUCCESSFUL STEPFAMILY

Did you know that the greatest trauma for children is not the divorce, but the continuing conflict between their parents? AND that the divorce rate for second marriages is considerably higher than for first marriages, especially if children are involved?

This workshop addresses important stepfamily and co-parenting issues, such as the unique characteristics of a stepfamily and discipline. Participants will learn effective techniques to facilitate positive co-parenting with former spouse and helpful hints to strengthen family relationships.

This workshop will be offered by Lynn Hamilton, LMHC

Saturday, September 12, 2009 from 9:30 – 12:30 pm
