SEE YOU AT MASS

The Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make His face shine on you.

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we are invited to reflect on the voice of Christ, the one who knows His sheep and lays down His life for them. In a world filled with competing voices, we give thanks that we are not left to wander. We are guided, called, and loved by the Good Shepherd himself.

This Sunday is made even more joyful in our parish of St. Mary Magdalen as we celebrate First Holy Communion. These young members of our community will receive the Eucharist for the first time, encountering the Good Shepherd in a profound and personal way. Their joy is a reminder to all of us of the gift we have been given in Christ's presence.

Good Shepherd Sunday also invites us to give thanks for the other members of the flock who have mirrored God shepherding in our lives, The obvious and the hidden. I personally am grateful for my parents and grandparents, who first passed on the faith to me and taught me to recognize the Lord's voice. I also give thanks for the priests who have guided me along the way: Msgr. Page, Bishop Stephen Parks, Fr. Tim Labo (my first pastor as a priest), Fr. Miguel and so many others who have offered wisdom, encouragement, and faithful example. But there are also countless others who are not priests or family, but have shown me how to live a holy life with joy following the shepherd. Please take time this week to thank the ultimate Good Shepherd for all of the others who have taught us to recognize and follow His voice. May we continue to listen for the voice of Christ, the Good Shepherd, and may we be grateful for all those who help lead us closer to Him.

In Christ,
Father Chris Dorsey

Mis hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

En este Domingo del Buen Pastor, se nos invita a reflexionar sobre la voz de Cristo, aquel que conoce a sus ovejas y da su vida por ellas. En un mundo lleno de voces que compiten entre sí, damos gracias porque no estamos abandonados a vagar sin rumbo. Somos guiados, llamados y amados por el mismo Buen Pastor.

Este domingo se llena aún más de alegría en nuestra parroquia de Santa María Magdalena al celebrar la Primera Comunión. Estos jóvenes miembros de nuestra comunidad recibirán la Eucaristía por primera vez, encontrándose con el Buen Pastor de una manera profunda y personal. Su alegría es un recordatorio para todos nosotros del don que hemos recibido en la presencia de Cristo.

El Domingo del Buen Pastor también nos invita a dar gracias por los otros miembros del rebaño que han reflejado el pastoreo de Dios en nuestras vidas, tanto los visibles como los ocultos. Personalmente, doy gracias por mis padres y abuelos, quienes me transmitieron la fe por primera vez y me enseñaron a reconocer la voz del Señor. También doy gracias por los sacerdotes que me han guiado en el camino: Mons. Page, el Obispo Stephen Parks, el P. Tim Labo (mi primer párroco como sacerdote), el P. Miguel y tantos otros que han ofrecido sabiduría, ánimo y un ejemplo fiel. Pero también hay innumerables personas que no son sacerdotes ni familiares, y que me han mostrado cómo vivir una vida santa con alegría, siguiendo al Pastor.

Les invito a que tomen un momento esta semana para agradecer al Buen Pastor por todas aquellas personas que nos han enseñado a reconocer y seguir su voz. Que sigamos escuchando la voz de Cristo, el Buen Pastor, y que seamos agradecidos por todos aquellos que nos ayudan a acercarnos más a Él.

En Cristo,
Padre Chris Dorsey

GOOD & FAITHFUL SHEPHERDS

Today, as we reflect on Christ as the Good Shepherd, we recognize the living examples of that care in our own midst. Our hearts are full as we celebrate two remarkable milestones in our parish leadership.

FATHER CHRISTOPHER DORSEY

One-Year Anniversary as Our Pastor

On April 26, 2025, Bishop John Noonan appointed Father Chris Dorsey as the parochial administrator of St. Mary Magdalen Catholic Church. We invite you to join us in offering our warmest congratulations on his one-year anniversary with our parish and school community!

Father Chris, we are so grateful for the leadership, heart, and dedication you have shared with us this past year. May God continue to bless your ministry as you lead us in faith.

FATHER DUBERNEY RODAS GRAJALES

Celebrating 20 Years of Priesthood

On April 29, our Associate Pastor, Father Duberney Rodas Grajales, celebrates the 20th Anniversary of his Ordination. Since his “yes” in 2006, Father Duberney has been a faithful witness to the Gospel.

We thank God for his vocation and the grace he brings to St. Mary Magdalen through his priestly ministry. Please join us in praying for him on this joyous milestone. Congratulations, Father Duberney!

In being united to the humanity of Christ, we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life” (usccb.org/eucharist).
